

Shuswap District Arts Council BLAIR BORDEN MEMORIAL AWARD

Blair Borden, founding member of the Shuswap District Arts Council, and a life-long learner of music and art, made a significant donation to the Arts Council's Endowment Fund so that interest earned could be granted to musicians who wished to further their education or experience in music.

In Blair's memory, the Arts Council offers an award of not less than $500 to one or two musicians who demonstrate a willingness to continue the learning process.

Eligibility: Applicants must be age 19 or over and not previous recipients of this award.

Requirements: Please fill out the attached application form and submit with sample CD of work that best describes your current endeavors. Deadline for submissions is April 30. Applications should be dropped off at Shuswap District Arts Council, located at the Arts Centre at 70 Hudson Avenue NE. Note hours are Tuesday to Saturday, 11am to 4pm.

Notification: The Award will be presented to the successful applicant(s) by June 30. The Arts Council requires a letter of acknowledgment upon receipt of the Award.
